Registration of Private Vocational Schools

Private vocational schools offering courses in one or more of the training categories listed in this directory are approved under the Private Vocational Schools Act.

This directory lists only those schools that had applied for registration or reregistration for the year 1982 by December 31, 1981.

The operation of registered schools is supervised by the Superintendent of Private Vocational Schools. The supervision includes the approval of all advertising copy, graduation requirements, and fees charged for the courses. It also indicates that the teachers are qualified in accordance with the Act, and that the courses registered have been reviewed for their validity.

Approval of the accommodation, equipment, and lighting and heating facilities is also required.

This directory also includes a partial list of the courses offered by the schools.

You may obtain information regarding individual courses directly from the appropriate school.

Many courses are available in each subject area. The content of these courses may vary considerably. For example, one course in radio may teach you to repair radios; another may help you to prepare for a position with a broadcasting company. It is suggested that you write to the schools for complete information and then choose the particular course you want.

The fact that two or more registered schools offer courses with similar titles does not mean that these courses are of equal merit or will be of equal value to you. It does mean that each school describes its courses truthfully and that the fees charged are considered reasonable for the facilities available and for the instruction and services rendered.

The Private Career Education Council (PCEC) is a professional association of private vocational schools in Ontario. In Section 3 of the directory, the designation PCEC after a listing denotes a member school.

Introduction

In choosing an educational institution, it pays to select the institution that can best prepare you to compete in the job market. In certain fields, the training offered by private vocational schools in Ontario can provide a suitable alternative to the wide range of training offered by colleges, universities, apprenticeship, and other skills development programs.

This directory will help you to select the registered private vocational school that is best suited to your needs. It will help you to understand better the schools' courses, costs, and contract requirements. It is important that you carefully consider your own aptitudes and career goals before you enrol in any course.

What are private vocational schools?

Registered private vocational schools offer training courses in a single occupation or a number of related occupations.

These privately owned and operated schools of business, trades, and technology offer training in secretarial and clerical work, bookkeeping, computer science, radio announcing, drafting, sales, fashion modelling, hotel-motel management, television electronics, court reporting, and other areas. Courses may be provided in day or evening classes and, in many cases, by correspondence.

Do I have to be a high school graduate to enrol in a private vocational school?

You may need a high school diploma to enrol in certain courses. You may also need it to obtain certain jobs, even if you have completed a training course.

Where can I obtain specific information about a particular course?

Write to the appropriate school(s) listed in this directory and request information relating to costs, course content, length of training, entrance requirements, and starting date for the course that interests you.

Are private vocational school graduates accepted by employers?

No training, be it in a college, university, or private vocational school, guarantees employment. A good course should, however, provide you with the necessary skills to meet the minimum employment standards of a particular occupation.

A number of trades and vocations are regulated under the Apprenticeship and Tradesmen's Qualification Act. Regulations under the Act require that all persons practising some of these occupations hold a Certificate of Qualification, obtained through apprenticeship training. Before selecting a training program, it is suggested that you read Apprenticeship and You, which is available from your secondary school guidance counsellor or from the Ministry of Colleges and Universities, Communication Services Branch, Public Inquiries Section, Queen's Park, Mowat Block, 14th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M7A 1L2. Telephone: (416) 965-6407.

What financial assistance is available?

A limited number of private vocational schools are eligible to participate in various government financial assistance programs for students. Normally this assistance will apply only to courses that last six months or longer and have an entrance requirement of secondary school graduation. For more complete details, contact the Ministry of Colleges and Universities, Student Awards Branch, Queen's Park, Mowat Block, 8th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M7A 2B4.

A private vocational school's sales representative must be licensed

Under Ontario law, a school's representative who meets prospective students away from the school must have a permit bearing his or her name and the name of the school represented. The permit is endorsed by the Minister of Colleges and Universities and the Superintendent of Private Vocational Schools. The owner of a school is not required to have a permit if he or she does not enrol students or sign contracts away from the premises of the school. Do not deal outside the school with a representative who does not have a permit.

What should I consider when enrolling in a private vocational school?

1. Make sure that the school is registered to operate in Ontario.
2. Be sure that you can afford the total cost of the enrolment fee, tuition, laboratory fees, books, transportation, room and board, etc.
3. Evaluate your own aptitudes realistically. Be sure that you have the physical and mental qualities and the educational background to profit from the course you are considering.
4. Read the contract and be sure you understand it before you sign. Do not be in a hurry. Your signature makes this contract legally binding. Ask someone else to review the contract if you do not understand it.

A school is responsible only for those conditions or terms which appear in the contract and descriptive literature, nothing more. Any promises or statements that are made orally by the representative and are not contained in the contract or catalogue may not be the responsibility of the school.

5. Be sure that you understand exactly how much it will cost if you interrupt your training. The refund policy must be clearly stated in the contract.
6. Decide whether you are willing to devote the time and energy needed to succeed in the course.
7. If possible, visit a school and see the facilities and equipment. Talk with currently enrolled students or graduates. Talk with employers who have hired graduates.

Section 1 of this directory lists the courses available on a residence basis, full-time or part-time. "Residence" means that you must attend formal classes.

Section 2 lists the courses available by correspondence.

Section 3 lists the registered schools that offer the courses listed in the previous two sections. The schools are listed in alphabetical order and are numbered for easy reference.

Should you be interested in either a residence or a correspondence course, turn to Section 1 or 2, respectively. The numbers noted for each course listing refer to the schools, shown in Section 3, that offer that course.

Some correspondence courses require that you attend formal classes before completing the program. Further information is available from individual schools.

Retention and Repayment of Fees

Enrolment in a private vocational school shall be by means of a contract. The contract must be approved by the Superintendent of Private Vocational Schools and signed by both the applicant and the school's owner. In the case of a minor below the age of eighteen, the signature of a guarantor must be included. Both parties to the contract will hold an original copy of the contract.

The following excerpts from the Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1980, and Ontario Regulation 801, as amended, under the Private Vocational Schools Act, must be included verbatim in the contractual document.

20. A private vocational school may charge a registration fee that shall not exceed 100 per cent of the total cost of the course of instruction or $100, whichever is the lesser, and such registration fee shall be applied to the total cost of the course of instruction. O. Reg. 499/81, s. 5.

21.—(1) Subject to section 17 and subsection 18 (5) of the Act,

(a) where a person has contracted for a course of instruction at a private vocational school twenty-one days or more prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction and gives notice in writing either delivered personally or by registered mail to the private vocational school at least twenty-one days prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction, of his intention not to commence the course of instruction, the private vocational school shall refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of the person, except for the registration fee referred to in section 20;

(b) where a person has contracted for a course of instruction at a private vocational school twenty-one days or more prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction and gives notice in writing either delivered personally or by registered mail to the private vocational school less than twenty-one days prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction, of his intention not to commence the course of instruction, the private vocational school shall refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of the person except,

(i) the registration fee under section 20, and

(ii) 10 per cent of the fees for the whole course of instruction;

(c) where a person has contracted for a course of instruction at a private vocational school less than twenty-one days prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction and gives notice in writing either delivered personally or by registered mail to the private vocational school at any time prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction, of his intention not to commence the course of instruction, the private vocational school shall refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of the person except,

(i) the registration fee under section 20, and

(ii) 10 per cent of the fees for the whole course of instruction;

(d) subject to subsection (4), where a person has contracted for a course of instruction at a private vocational school and gives notice in writing either delivered personally or by registered mail to the private vocational school after the commencement date of the course of instruction of his intention to cease taking the course of instruction, the private vocational school shall refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of the person except,

(i) the registration fee under section 20,

(ii) the proportion of the fees for the course of instruction that the part of the course of instruction supplied and serviced up to the time of receipt of the notice bears to the course of instruction, and

(iii) 10 per cent of the difference between the fees for the course of instruction and the proportion of the fees that the part of the course of instruction supplied and serviced up to the time of receipt of the notice bears to the course of instruction; and

(e) where a private vocational school has supplied equipment to a person that is in addition to the integral and essential equipment supplied with the written material for a course of instruction and the private vocational school receives from the person a notice under clause (a), (b), (c) or (d), the private vocational school may make a charge not exceeding the retail cost to the private vocational school, for the additional equipment or for the use thereof, as the case may be, except where the person returns all the additional equipment to the private vocational school unopened or as issued, within ten days of the receipt of the additional equipment by the person. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 21 (1); O. Reg. 499/81, s. 6 (1).

(2) The maximum amount a private vocational school may retain under clause (1) (c) is $200.

(3) Where a private vocational school receives a proper notice under clause (1) (a), (b), (c) or (d), the private vocational school shall acknowledge receipt of the notice and provide the student with a statement of any moneys retained by the private vocational school. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 21 (2, 3).

(4) Where a private vocational school has supplied and serviced two-thirds or more of a course of instruction and has not received a proper notice under clause (1) (d) before that date, the private vocational school shall not be obliged to refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of a person who has contracted for such course of instruction. O. Reg. 499/81, s. 6 (2).

22. Where a person has contracted for a course at a private vocational school and does not give notice in writing by registered mail to the private vocational school prior to the commencement date of the course of instruction that is not by way of correspondence of his intention not to commence the course of instruction and does not attend the first five consecutive days of the course of instruction, the contract is voidable at the option of the private vocational school, and the private vocational school shall refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of the person, except,

(a) the registration fee provided for in section 20; and

(b) 10 per cent of the fees for the course of instruction. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 22; O. Reg. 499/81, s. 7.

23.—(1) Where a person has contracted for a course of instruction that is not by way of correspondence at a private vocational school and exercises his option to void the contract under section 18 prior to the date upon which the first class is held in respect of any subject of the course of instruction, the private vocational school shall, except as provided in clause 21 (1) (e), refund any money paid by or on behalf of the student for or on account of fees for the course of instruction, including the registration fee under section 20.

(2) Where a person has contracted for a course of instruction that is not by way of correspondence at a private vocational school and fails to exercise his option to void a contract under section 18 prior to the date upon which the first class is held, clauses 21 (1) (d) and (e) shall apply in respect of any subsequent exercise of the option notwithstanding that the student may not have participated in the course of instruction, except that the owner of the private vocational school is not entitled to retain the registration fee under section 20.

(3) Where a person has contracted for a correspondence course at a private vocational school and exercises his option to void the contract under section 18 before returning a part of the course of instruction for the purpose of marking, and notwithstanding that one or more lessons may have been delivered by the private vocational school to the person, the private vocational school shall, except as provided in clause 21 (1) (c), refund any money paid by or on behalf of the student for or on account of fees for the course of instruction including the registration fee under section 20.

(4) Where a person has contracted for a correspondence course at a private vocational school and exercises his option to void a contract under section 18 after part of the course of instruction has been supplied and serviced, clauses 21 (1) (d) and (e) shall apply except that the owner of the private vocational school is not entitled to retain the registration fee under section 20. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 23.

24. Where a private vocational school is required to refund any money under sections 21, 22 or 23, the private vocational school shall refund the money to the person entitled within thirty days of the receipt by the private vocational school of the notice referred to in section 18, 21 or 22, as the case may be. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 24.

25.—(1) Where a private vocational school has after the commencement date of a course of instruction dismissed a student due to academic failure, contravention of a school regulation, misconduct or failure to pay the required fees under a written contract for a course of instruction and the private vocational school has satisfied the Superintendent that the dismissal was for good cause, the private vocational school shall refund any money paid for or on account of the fees by or on behalf of the student except,

(a) the registration fee under section 20;

(b) the proportion of the fees for the course of instruction that the part of the course of instruction supplied and serviced to the date of dismissal bears to the course of instruction; and

(c) 10 per cent of the difference between the fees for the course of instruction and the proportion of the fees that the part of the course of instruction supplied and serviced to the date of dismissal bears to the course of instruction. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 25 (1); O. Reg. 499/81, s. 8.

(2) Where a private vocational school has dismissed a student under subsection (1), the private vocational school may retain, in addition to the moneys referred to in subsection (1), an amount required to repair or replace any property of the private vocational school that has been damaged or destroyed as a direct result of the action or conduct of the dismissed student and the private vocational school has satisfied the Superintendent that such damage or destruction was caused by the wilful action of such student. R.R.O. 1980, Reg. 801, s. 25 (2).
